

HERBIE'S STORY

Written By: Jenna Holtzman who is lovingly owned by HERBIE! 12/07/06

Like many of you, I just made a huge mistake of doing business with Patti and Ian McCarty.

I am an 18 year old college student, and all I wanted for Christmas was a puppy.

My boyfriend picked my puppy up from Keystone Kennel last week. (first week of Dec 2006) We fell in love, he is such a great dog. We had him for five days when he became sick and was diagnosed with Parvo. He is now in the animal hospital under intensive care, and Patti is blaming us for getting him sick while we came to visit.

We brought him back to her after we talked to our vet and she let him stay overnight in their home, infecting all of the other puppies. It was not until we had our vet call their vet and have their vet contact them, that they took our baby in.

She told us that he had been fully examined by their vet when we picked him up, and according to their vet, they had never seen him nor his parents.

I am extremely upset and frustrated with the dishonestly and cruelty of these people.

My first concern right now is to save my puppy.

Thanks, Jenna Holtzman
